

A SYMPOSIUM ON ENVIRONMENTAL COMMUNICATION
SPONSORED BY GC学会

From Community to the United Nations:

*Communicating About the Roots, Constructs and
Consequences of the Uranium
Fuel Chain 80 Years after Hiroshima and Nagasaki*

LEONA MORGAN

LYDIA PETERSEN

This symposium brings together Leona Morgan and Lydia Peterson to reflect on the role of communication in contemporary struggles for nuclear justice. Both work at the intersections of grassroots organizing and international advocacy, moving between community-based initiatives and platforms such as the United Nations.

OCTOBER 9, 2025

Kyotanabe Campus, TC1-108

10:40 am - 13:00 pm

Symposium will be conducted in English
